Please Note:

School Examinations, and work completed during the term, which count toward NCEA, are critical to your success.

Poor performances in examinations, or in NCEA Internal Assessments, may mean you will continue with classes after the seniors leave for examination preparation in Nov, in order to catch up and ensure that you have the necessary credits for the following year.

Failure to attend examinations without a letter signed by parents is truancy. This letter must be presented to the Deans' Room or your Tutor Teacher on your return, during or immediately following, the examination period.
